Bernice Cole - It is with sadness that we report that Bernice Cole passed away unexpectedly but peacefully on 23rd August. Bernice lived in Treverva for 32 years with Leonard until they moved back to Falmouth, about a year ago, the place where she was born. Bernice was a very busy and lively lady, full of enthusiasm – she loved the whole village coming together for celebration events and she was always willing to help with activities and functions. She took on many roles while here in the village - Secretary of the Friendship Club, decorating the hall for Christmas and helping with coffee mornings to name but a few. She will be sadly missed by family and friends. RIP Bernice

Neighbourhood Watch: Action Fraud report a sharp increase in reports about fake TV Licensing e-mails claiming to offer refunds. The e-mails state that the refund cannot be processed due to 'invalid account details'. The links provided in the e-mails lead to phishing websites designed to steal personal and financial details. Always question unsolicited requests for information in case it's a scam. Never automatically click on a link in an unexpected e-mail or text.

TREVERVA and LAMANVA – The beginning

The first that is known of an occupant of Treverva, is found in the Lay Subsidy (or Tax) Roll of 1326 when Ricardo Trewvro paid the sum of Xd as a tenant.

Almost certainly a single farm originally, Treverva became the village it is today because it was situated near the junction of two roads, each of great importance in the past. One road, that entering the village from the south, was an ancient ridge way from the Helford River at Calamansack in Constantine, passing High Cross in that parish and entering Budock parish near Trewoon. Joining the second road after it reaches Penryn via Hill Head. The other road, also a continuation of an old ridge way from Gweek to Stithians via Butteriss Gate, leaves the ridge way road at Carwythenack in Constantine and continues to Treverva, entering the village at the Western end. This latter road would have been a direct route between the two important market towns of Helston and Penryn, crossing what is now part of the Royal Naval Air Station at Culdrose.
