Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018 (the 'accessibility regulations'). If you're not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS).

Technical information about this website's accessibility

Budock Parish Council is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

Compliance status

This website is partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.1 AA standard, due to the non-compliances and exemptions listed below:

Non-accessible content

The content listed below is non-accessible for the following reasons.

Non-compliance with the accessibility regulations

Some PDF documents, especially those containing graphics and images, may not be fully accessible to screen readers

PDFs and other documents

Some of our PDFs documents are essential to providing our services. For example, we have PDFs with information on how users can access our services.

The accessibility regulations do not require us to fix PDFs or other documents published before 23 September 2018 if they're not essential to providing our services.

Any new PDFs we publish will meet accessibility standards, except where these are supplied by other organisations over which we have no control.

Structural Errors

Some pages have incorrect use of headers which can affect navigation by screen readers.

Linked Images Missing Alternative Text

Some link images lack alternative text which is used by screen readers

Colour Contrast

The colour contrast for links does not meet WCAG2.1 Level AA

Plan to improve accessibility

Budock Parish Council is looking at ways to improve accessibility by upgrading the website to comply fully with WCAG2.1 Level AA so far as is practical. The plan aims to complete upgrades by the end of 2020.

Documents in alternative formats

Documents on this web site are available in alternative formats on request to the Parish Clerk.
